Regulations

1. The total credits required for graduation are 32 credits (comprising 9 required credits, 17 elective credits, and 6 thesis credits).
2. Credits per semester: First-year students may register for 6–16 credits in their first semester; all other semesters allow 3–16 credits.
3. Students must either complete the academic ethics course offered by the Taiwan Academic Ethics Education Resources Center and obtain a certificate of completion, or attend at least 6 hours of academic ethics-related workshops and obtain a certificate of participation. When applying for the master's thesis oral examination, students must submit one of the aforementioned certificates; only upon review and approval may the application for the oral examination proceed.
4. For sequential courses designated with labels such as “(I)” and “(II),” students who have not completed the prerequisite course may not enroll in the subsequent related course.
5. During the period of study, students may take courses offered by other departments or graduate institutes if such courses are not offered by the department's master's program. Credits earned from these courses, upon departmental review and approval, shall be limited to a maximum of two courses.
6. Other Courses: Courses approved by the Graduate Institute.
